SETON HALL UNIVERSITY

SOUTH ORANGE, NEW JERSEY

EDITOR'S FOREWORD

PLEASE PAUSE A MOMENT BEFORE YOU LEAVE THIS PAGE. THIS IS THE GALLEON, THE YEARBOOK OF THE SENIOR CLASS. IT IS THE FRUIT OF OUR EFFORTS TO PROVIDE THE LINK BETWEEN THE TRADITION-FILLED PAST, FROM WHICH OUR EDUCATION HAS SPRUNG, AND THE PROBLEM-LADEN FUTURE WE NOW CHALLENGE.

BEFORE YOU LIES A SYMBOL OF THE WEAPON WE HAVE CHOSEN, A NEWLY FORGED SWORD, CUTTING THROUGH THE ERRORS OF BYGONE DAYS, SOMEWHAT STARK, MOSTLY DIRECT, WHOLLY INTENDED, BUT MAINLY OURS, COMPLETELY OURS. OUR SWORD IS THE NEW IDEA, TEMPERED WITH THE GOOD BEHIND US, SHIELDED BY THE GOOD WITHIN, CUTTING FOR US A NEW AGE, A WORLD ANEW . . .

RTH '61

. . . A WORLD ANEW, TO THIS WE WERE DEDICATED WHEN WE WERE BORN. IN THIS WE MUST BE FULFILLED IF WE WILL EVER COMPLETELY BE.

ALTHOUGH EVERY ERA FEELS IN AN ELEMENT OF HUMAN PRIDE THAT IT IS ITSELF THE DAWN OF A NEW LIFE, WE MUST PROVE THAT WE ARE THIS DAWN, LEST ALL BEGIN TO BEAR THE UNENDING NIGHT. WE MUST KNOW THAT WE HAVE COME; WE MUST KNOW THAT WE WILL WIN. WE MUST KNOW THAT WE ARE NOW THE WEE OLYMPIANS.

THE GALLEON 1961

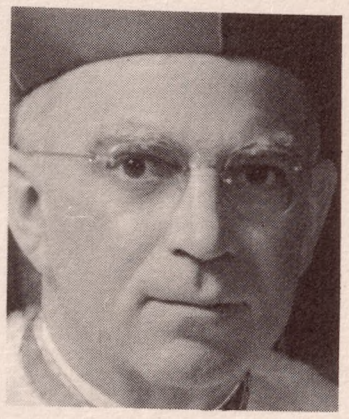

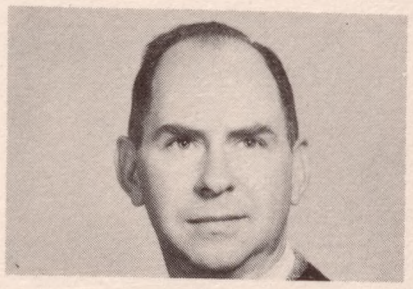

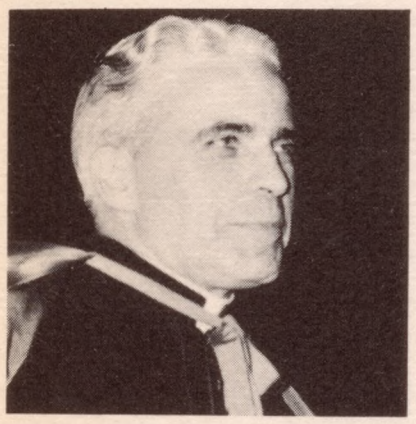

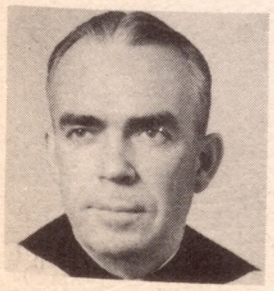

THE UNIVERSITY MAN

To strive.

To seek.

To find.

. . . and not to yield. The eternal quest goes on. The Sciences may elude us. The Arts may elude us. But still the quest continues. Still the quest for knowledge. Still the quest for perfection. Undaunted in his search, the University Man finds nothing that is unsearchable. Guided by Truth, he finds Truth his conquest.

ARCHBISHOP
THOMAS A. BOLAND

Archbishop Boland is a Seton Hall graduate with duties and accomplishments that would make men fearful of his labor and envious of the fruits. He could be likened to the wind: the effects of which are monumental and which can be felt over a large area, but seldom, if ever, observed.

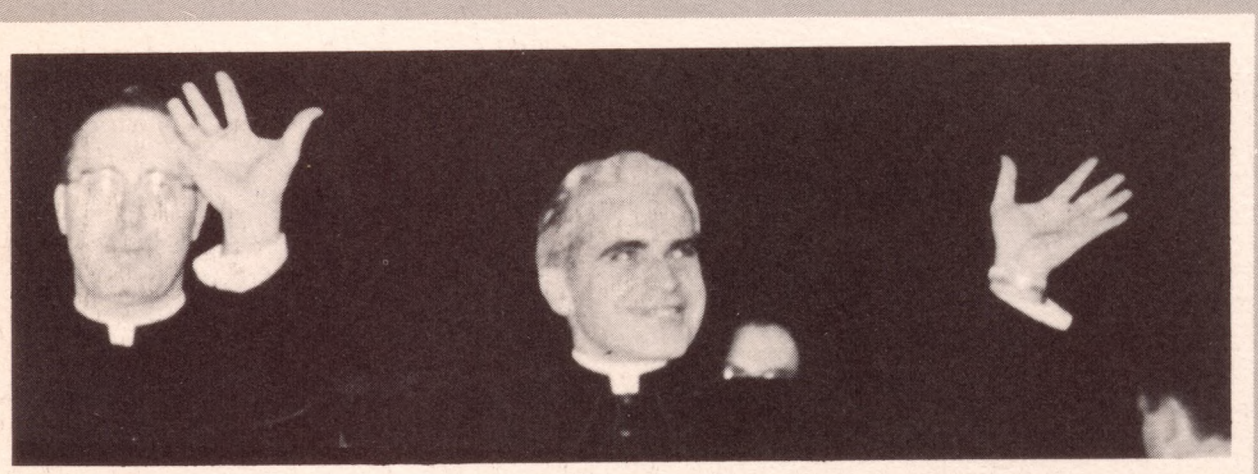

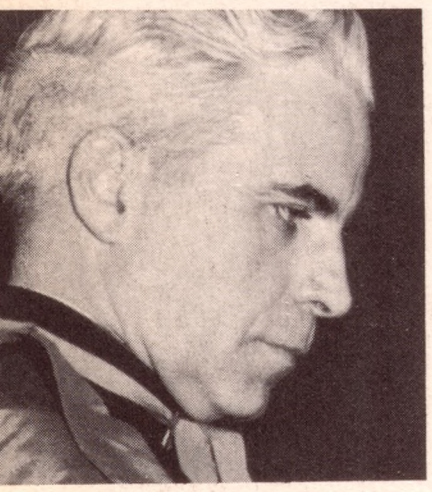

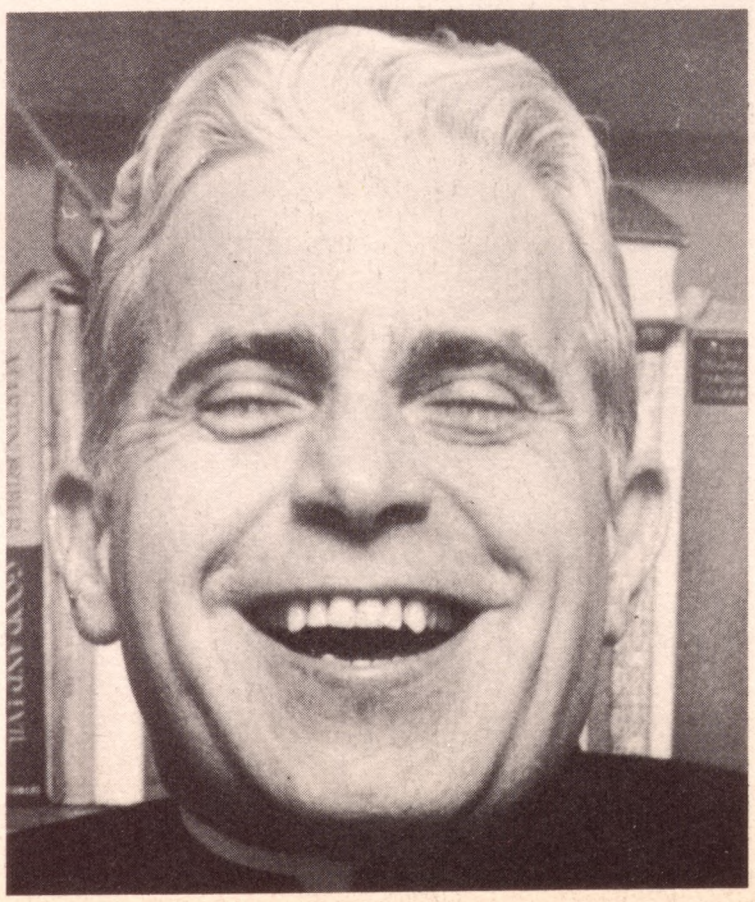

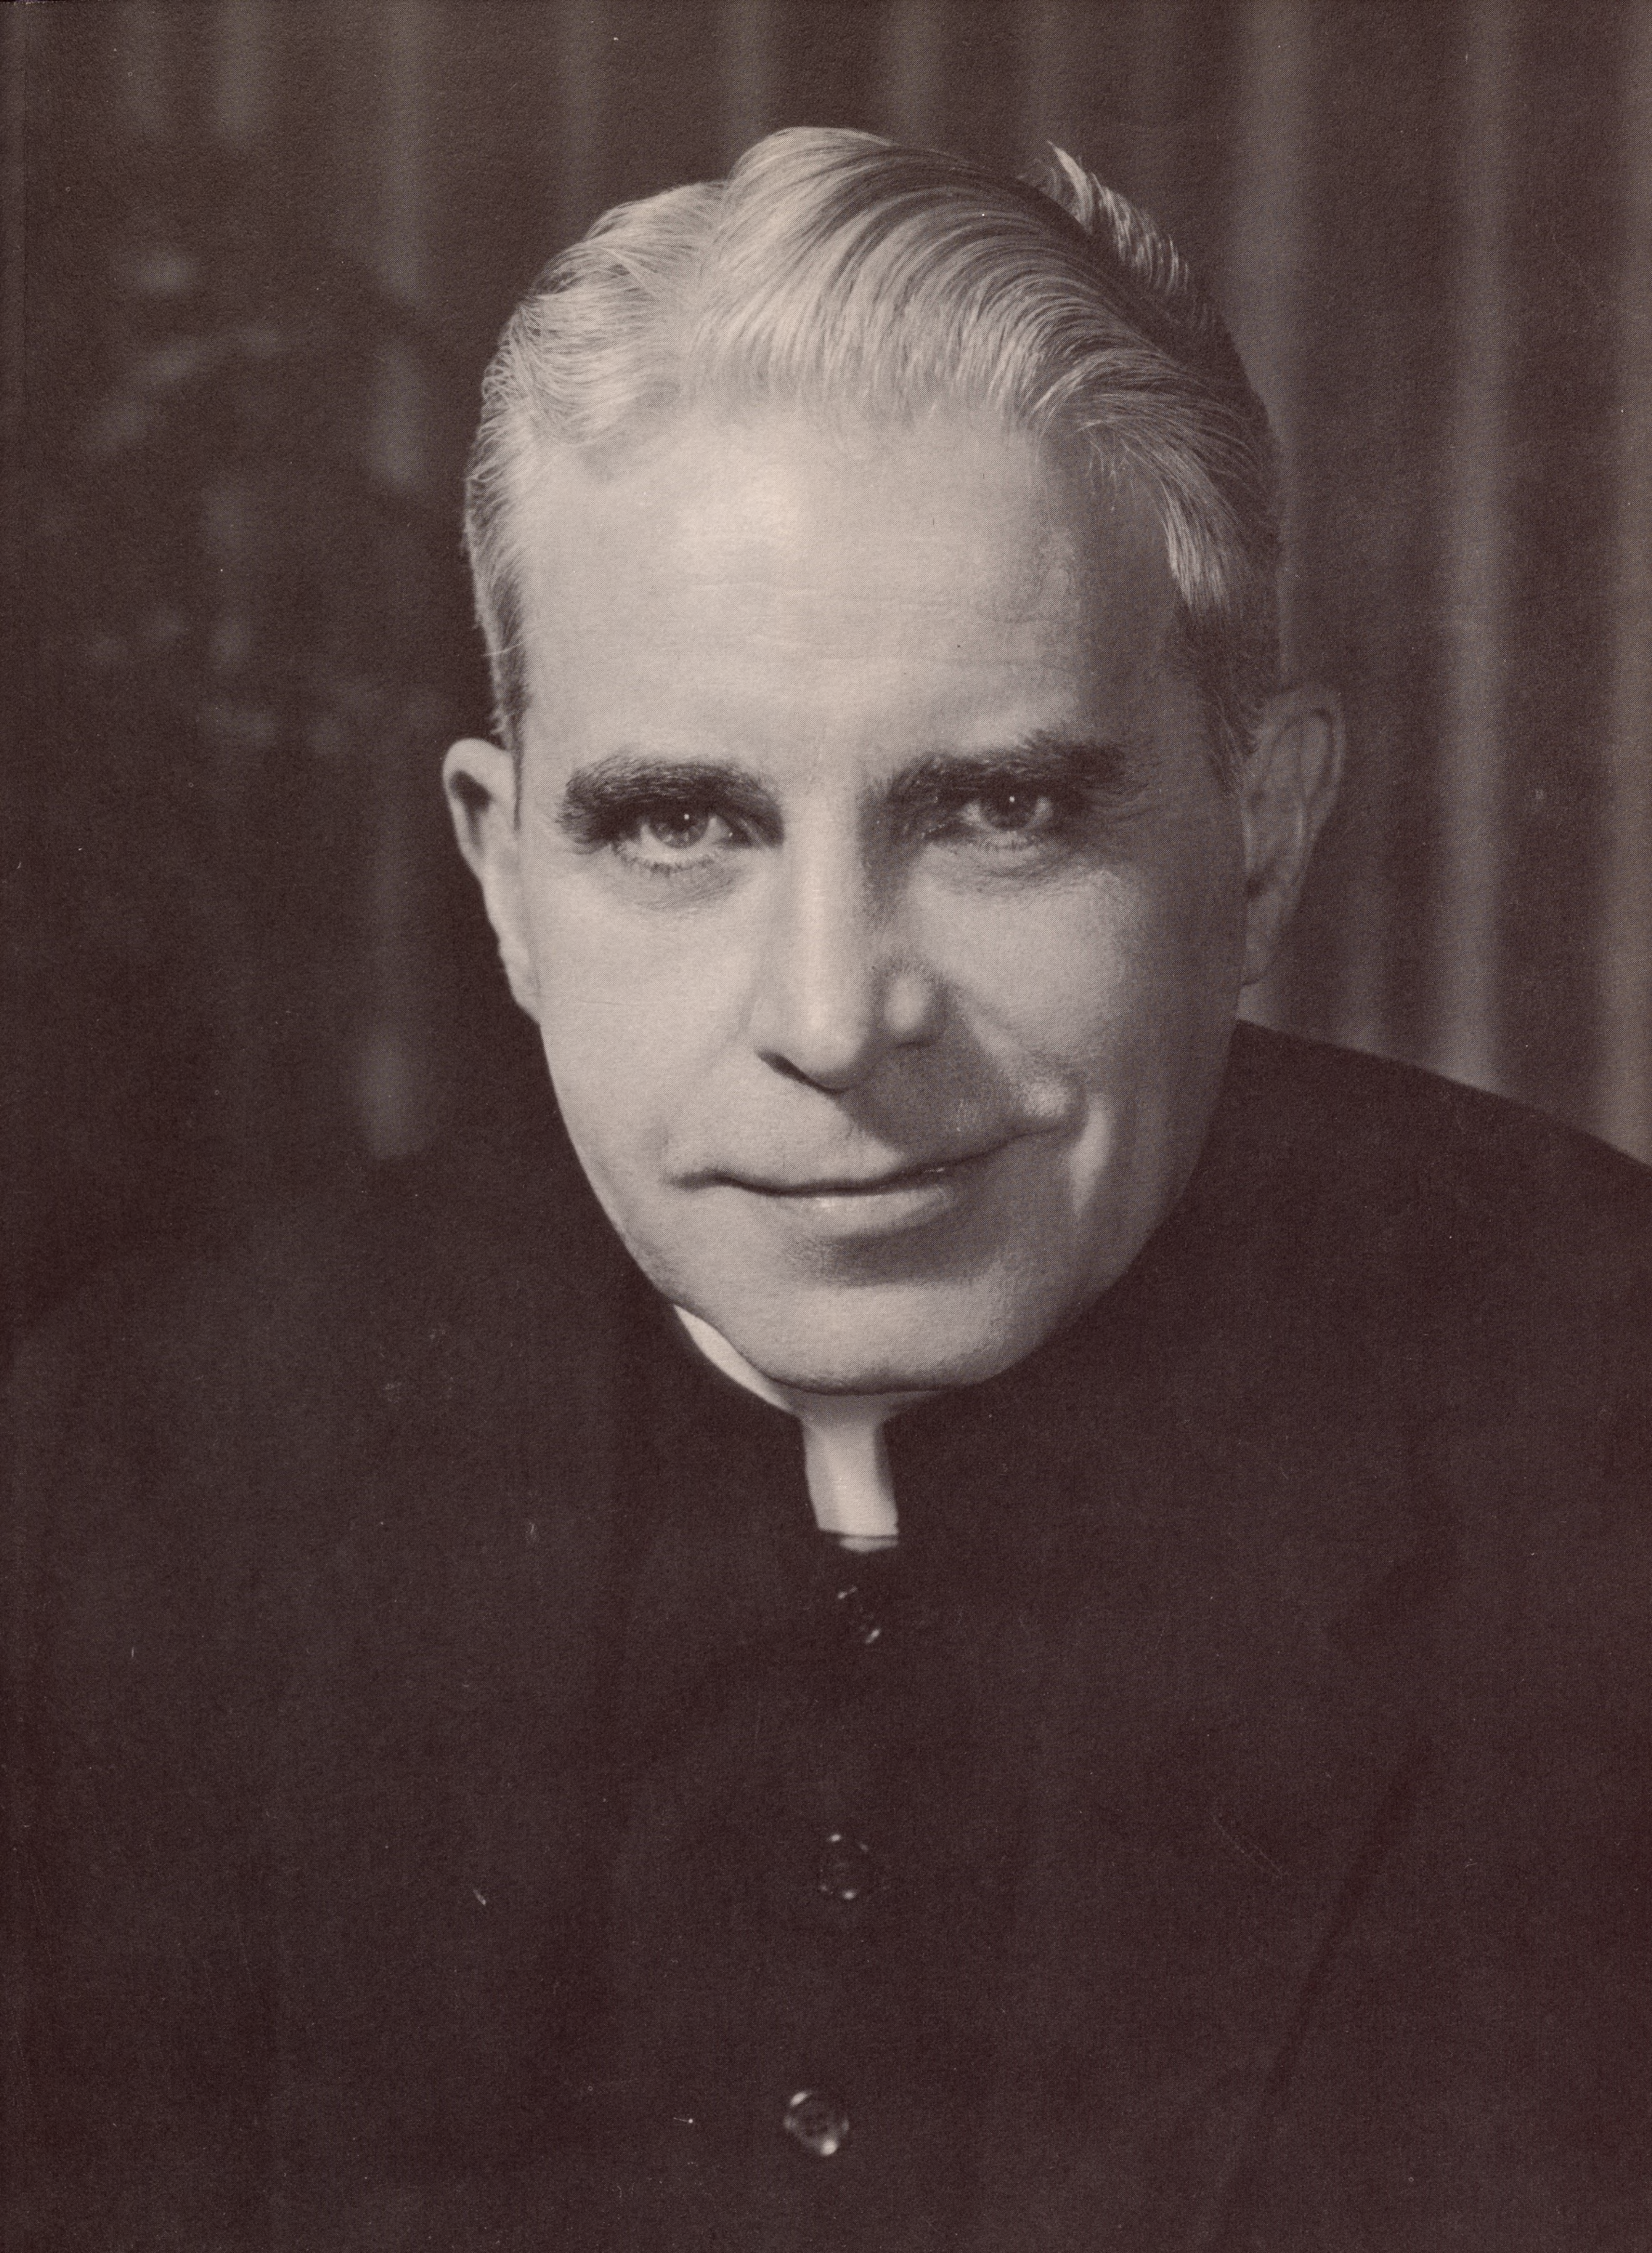

MONSIGNOR
JOHN J. DOUGHERTY

Monsignor Dougherty has been referred to as the "hub of every wheel of activity at Seton Hall" which, in fact, he is. As President, he is one of the most popular in the history of Seton Hall; full of the vitality and earnestness that he graduated from the Hall with in 1930. What is more, the relation of a man such as our President with Seton Hall is much like relating parts of a wheel to the wheel as a whole. Monsignor Dougherty has been a part of Seton Hall for many years, not only in his career as a student, but in his professional capacity at the Darlington Seminary, and now as President of the University. We will always know him as the man who follows his own ideal—the living progress of the "Seton Hall family."

DISPENSORES MISTERIUM DEI

THE SEMINARY OF THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION

SANCTITAS

"O God, Who wills not the death of a sinner but rather that he be converted and live . . ." maximizes the quest to which the seminarian dedicates his life.

SCIENTIA

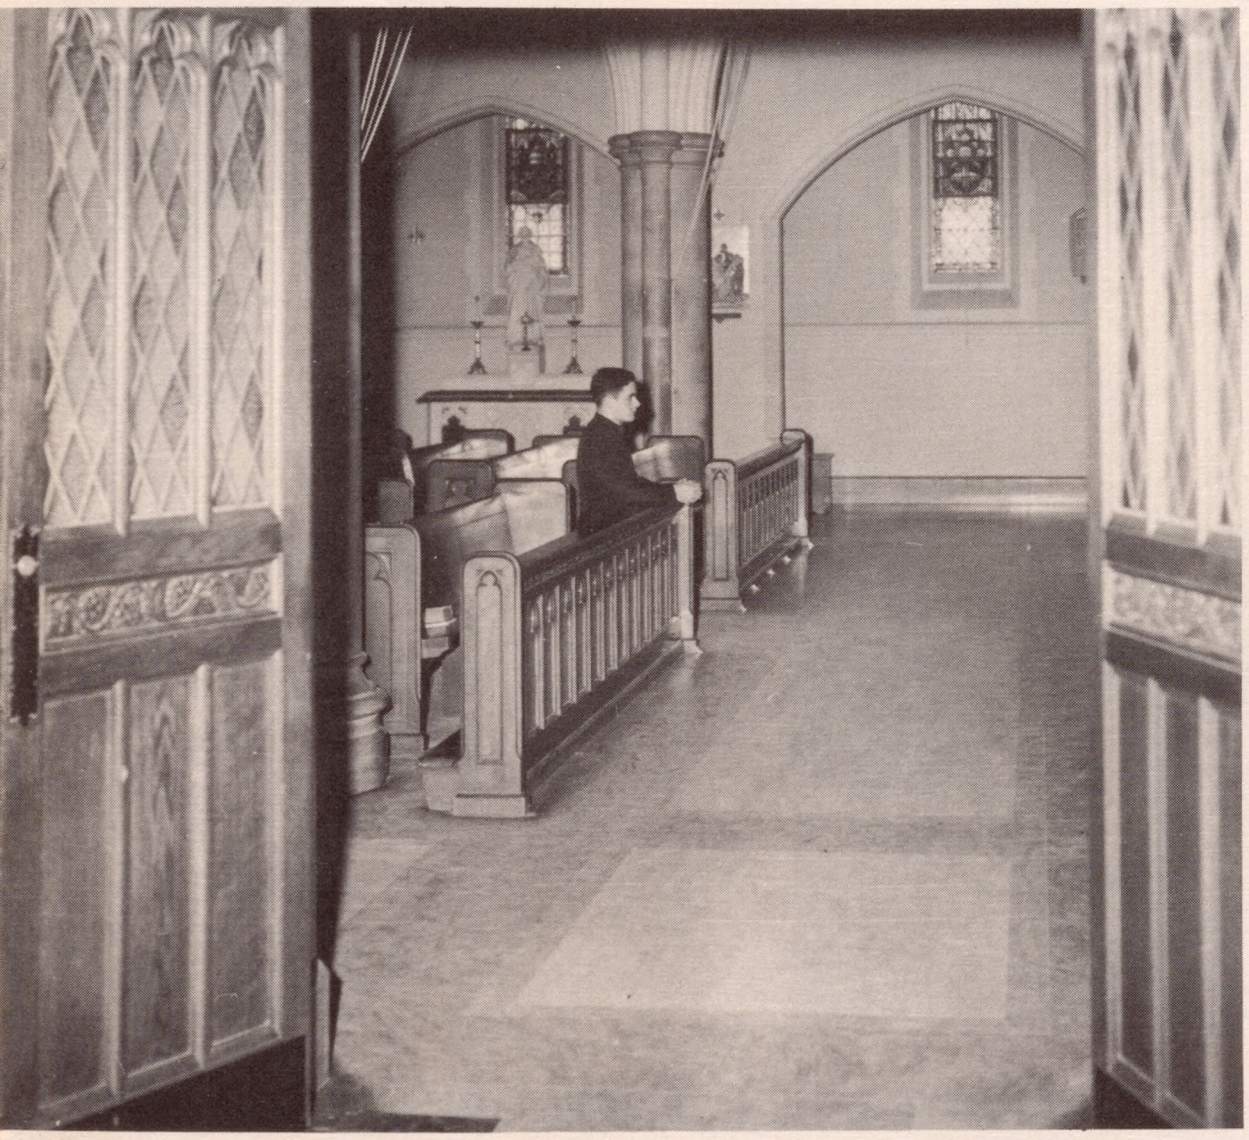

The seminarian commences his studies in the liberal arts at the South Orange campus of Seton Hall for a two year program in the classical languages. Thereupon, he enters the major seminary at Darlington, New Jersey. After the completion of a two-year study of philosophy he receives his baccalaureate from Seton Hall University. In the next four years the seminarian concentrates on the study of sacred theology . . . "Among all human wisdoms this is the highest."

SANITAS

The seminarian intermingles with his studies that pause to refresh his physical tone, to develop and refine his artistic appreciations of beauty with the resultant of a man among men and further a man dedicated to Christ.

CHESTERFIELD KING

The greatness of an age is expressed in its literature. The greatness of a university in a sense can also be expressed in its literature. This, ideally, is the goal of the Literary Club. In its weekly discussions and through its publication of the Seton Review, it attempts to achieve this ideal. That this greatness of expression be attained demands that this club possess material of greatness. And outstanding literary material can come only from an atmosphere which fosters literary creativity and from men who utilize this atmosphere. Seton Hall has the ability to supply both the atmosphere and the men. And the Literary Club has the capacity for expressing their productivity.

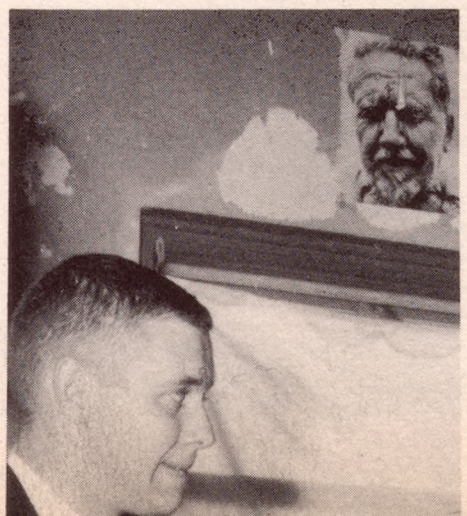

LITERARY CLUB

KNIGHTS OF SETONIA

Our Chapel of the Immaculate Conception is frequented each Thursday and Friday morning of the academic year by the Knights of Setonia. This organization, founded in 1937, is dedicated to instilling in the student a sincere and devout love of Christ through the spiritual bond of Holy Communion. Seton Hall, a Catholic University, provides its students with the means of receiving religious instruction. The Knights of Setonia, an honored organization, provides its members a means of effecting their religion.

SETONIAN FILM SOCIETY

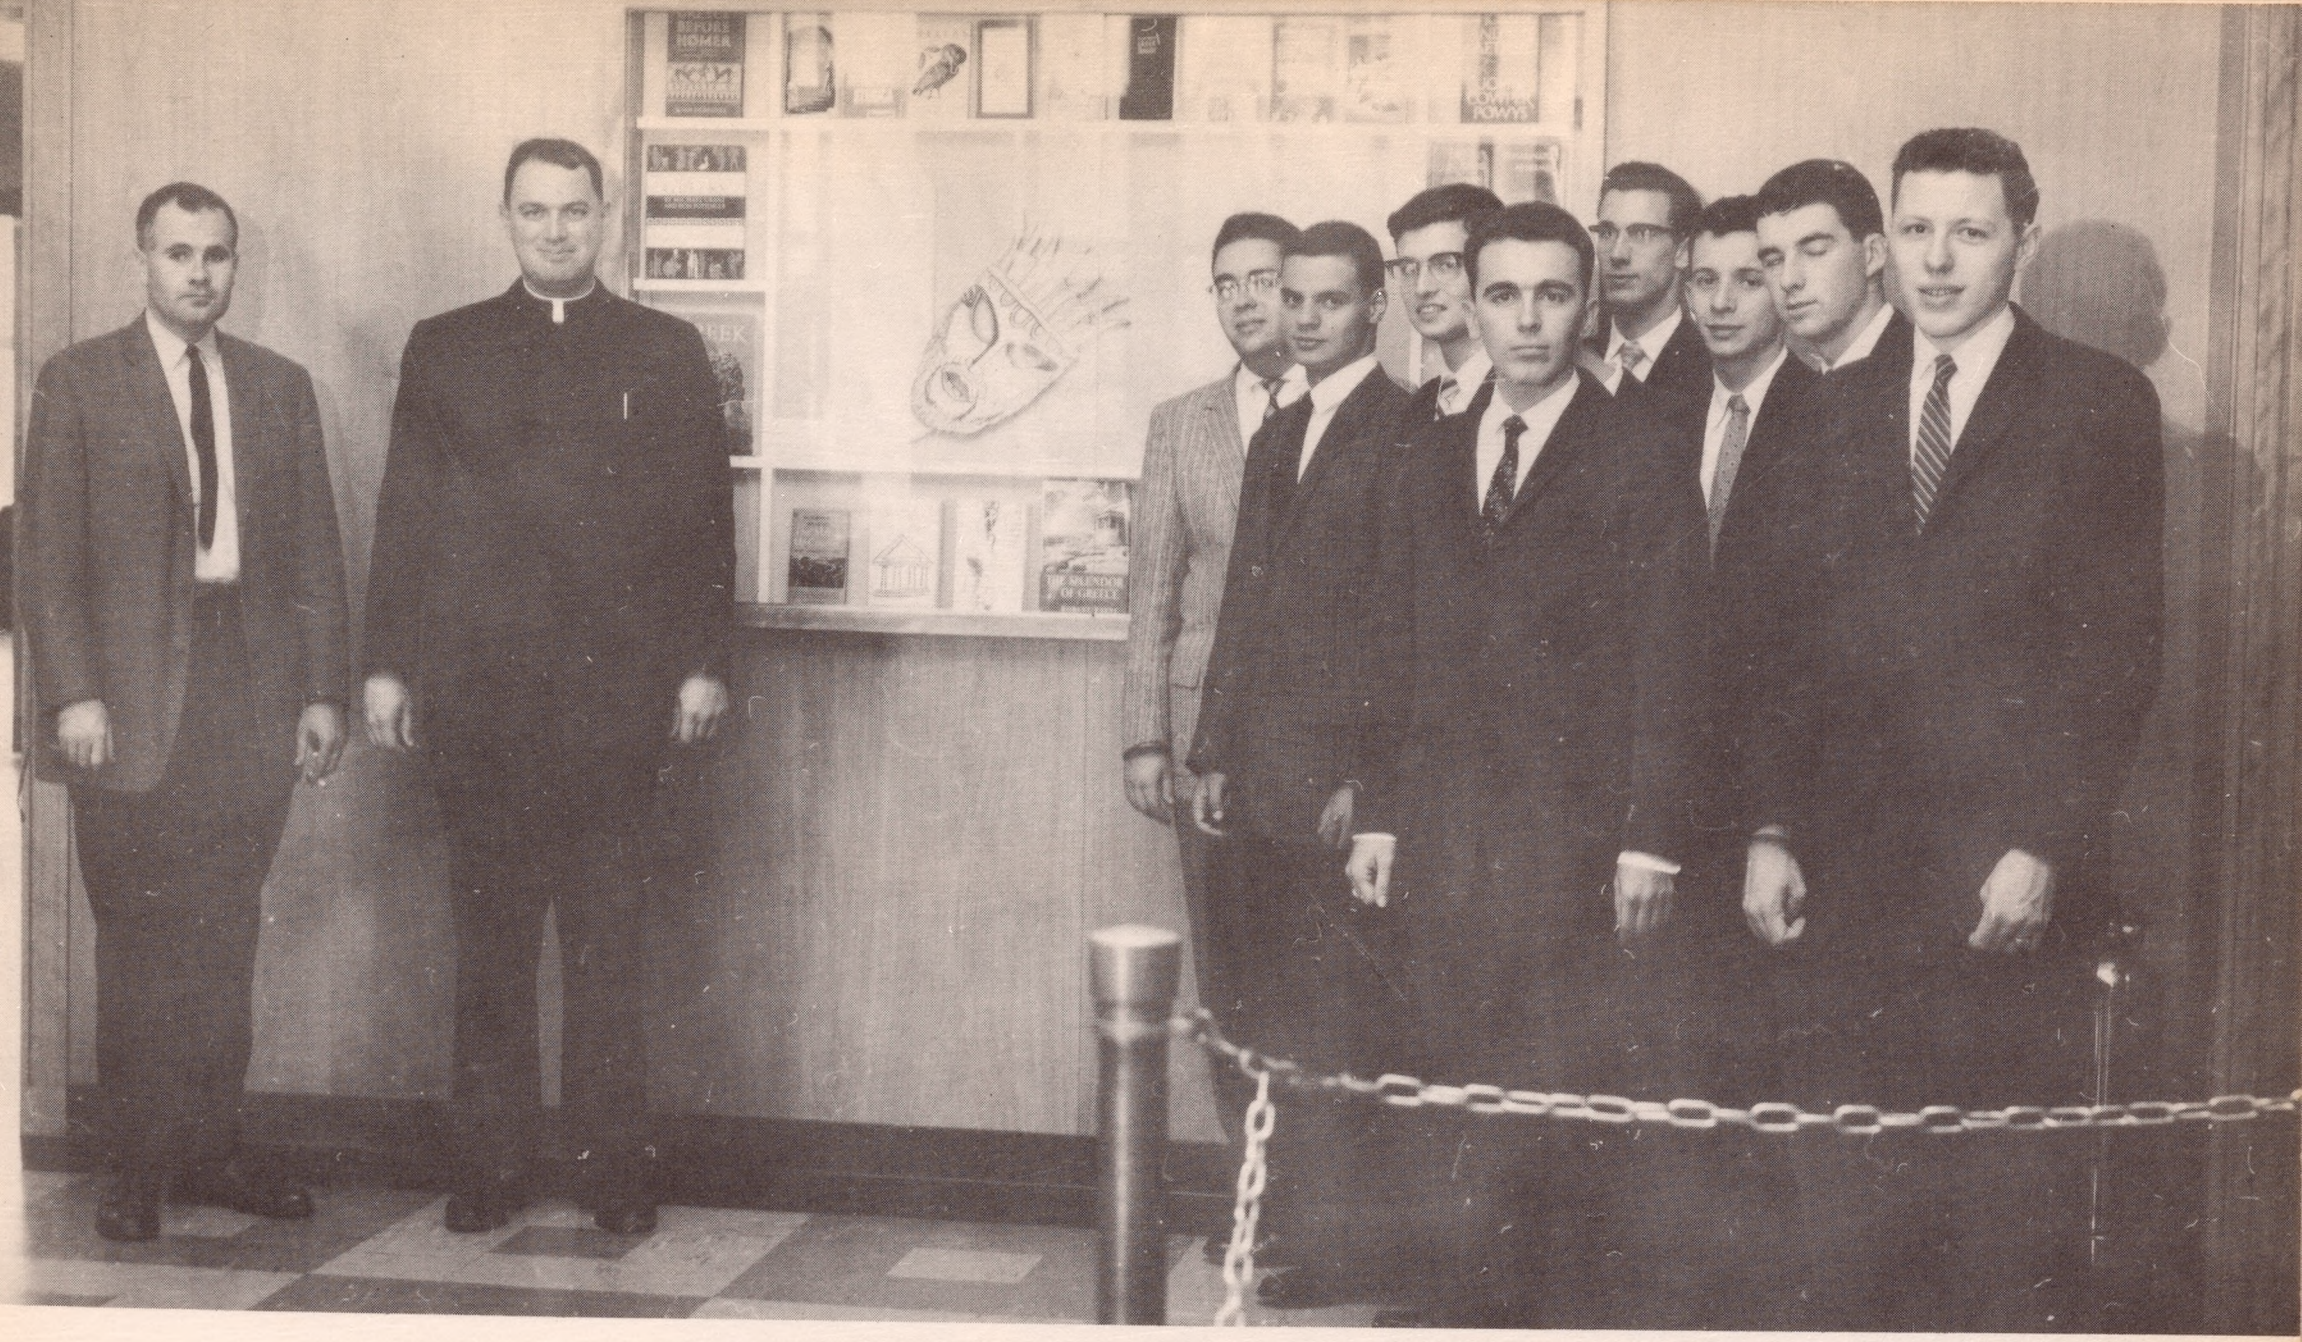

The intellectual ferment of a university depends in part on the vitality of an aesthetic appreciation. If an aesthetic sense is lacking, intellection becomes sluggish. That this may not become the case at Seton Hall is due largely to the activities of the Setonian Film Society. In selecting films of great photographic and controversial merit, it possesses the ability to produce such an intellectual ferment. In maintaining its ambitious program of outstanding film production, it can foster a decided aesthetic appreciation of the photographic art.

SCHOLARSHIP CLUB

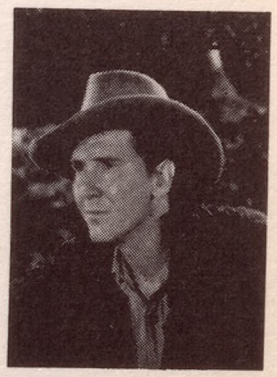

The aims of the Scholarship Club are both idealistic and practical. Idealistic, because they see in their endeavors the opportunity to give in a true and Christian spirit. Practical, because they raise the money for the scholarship in a convenient way.

The Monsignor John L. McNulty Scholarship is now a reality, but the Scholarship Club has not ended its quest. This year Father Davis and the members of the Club seek to establish the first Monsignor John J. Dougherty Scholarship.

STUDENT COUNCIL

It plans, it leads, it guides the student activities of a University. Social activities, club affairs, and student government successfully coordinated: this is the gavel, the lectern, the voice of two thousand four hundred students, a not so silent body of a stauncher and prouder generation than one might imagine.

Affiliated with the National Education Association, the Elizabeth Seton Student Education Association aims to enhance the student's preparation for the teaching profession. The organization's program includes guest lecturers, attendance at Student Education Association conventions, and a Speaker's Bureau.

SAINT THOMAS MORE PRE-LEGAL SOCIETY

To promote study and research in the field of law and to acquaint the members with the various aspects of the general practice of law, these are the purposes of the Saint Thomas More Pre-Legal Society.

The "Thinker" is no longer a marble masterpiece and there are perspicacious minds to prove it.

The Brownson Society, representing Seton Hall in the fields of debate and speech, is the intellectual coterie in which vocal eloquence, quick thinking, and sound judgment are a university student's most honored virtues; and there are laurels to prove it.

LANGUAGE CLUBS

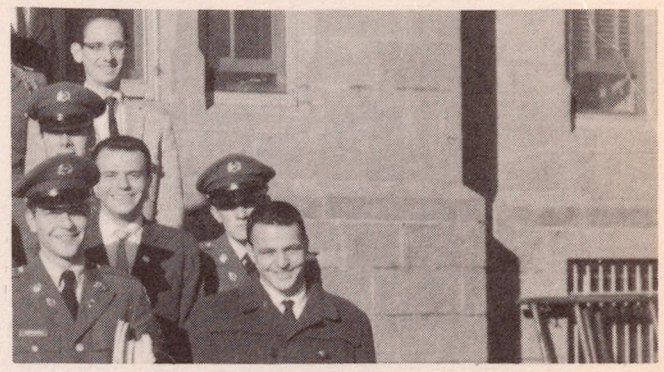

Yesterday we were on Atlantis.
We studied this utopian man;
an amazing animal,
this ape with a soul.
He speaks a common language,
we understand.

A long and restless sleep . . .
Today we awoke.
Atlantis had sunk;
in its place, a tower called Babel.
Such chaos!
So many languages!
So difficult to understand,
and yet, we must.

That apostolic activity be promoted, that Catholic student opinion be represented, that financial aid for foreign students be raised.

That all this may be done on both the national and local level, the National Federation of Catholic College Students has continued to carry on its program of activities and services for more than twenty-two years.

PSYCHOLOGY CLUB

Psychology treats of the mind; the Psychology Club attempts to stimulate it. Psychology investigates the phenomena of consciousness and behavior; the Psychology Club encourages the interested student to pursue this science. Research projects, surveys, and discussion groups are some of the tools used by the club to advance the study of its namesake.

YOUNG AMERICANS FOR FREEDOM

Robert Morris, principal speaker at one of the organization's meetings.

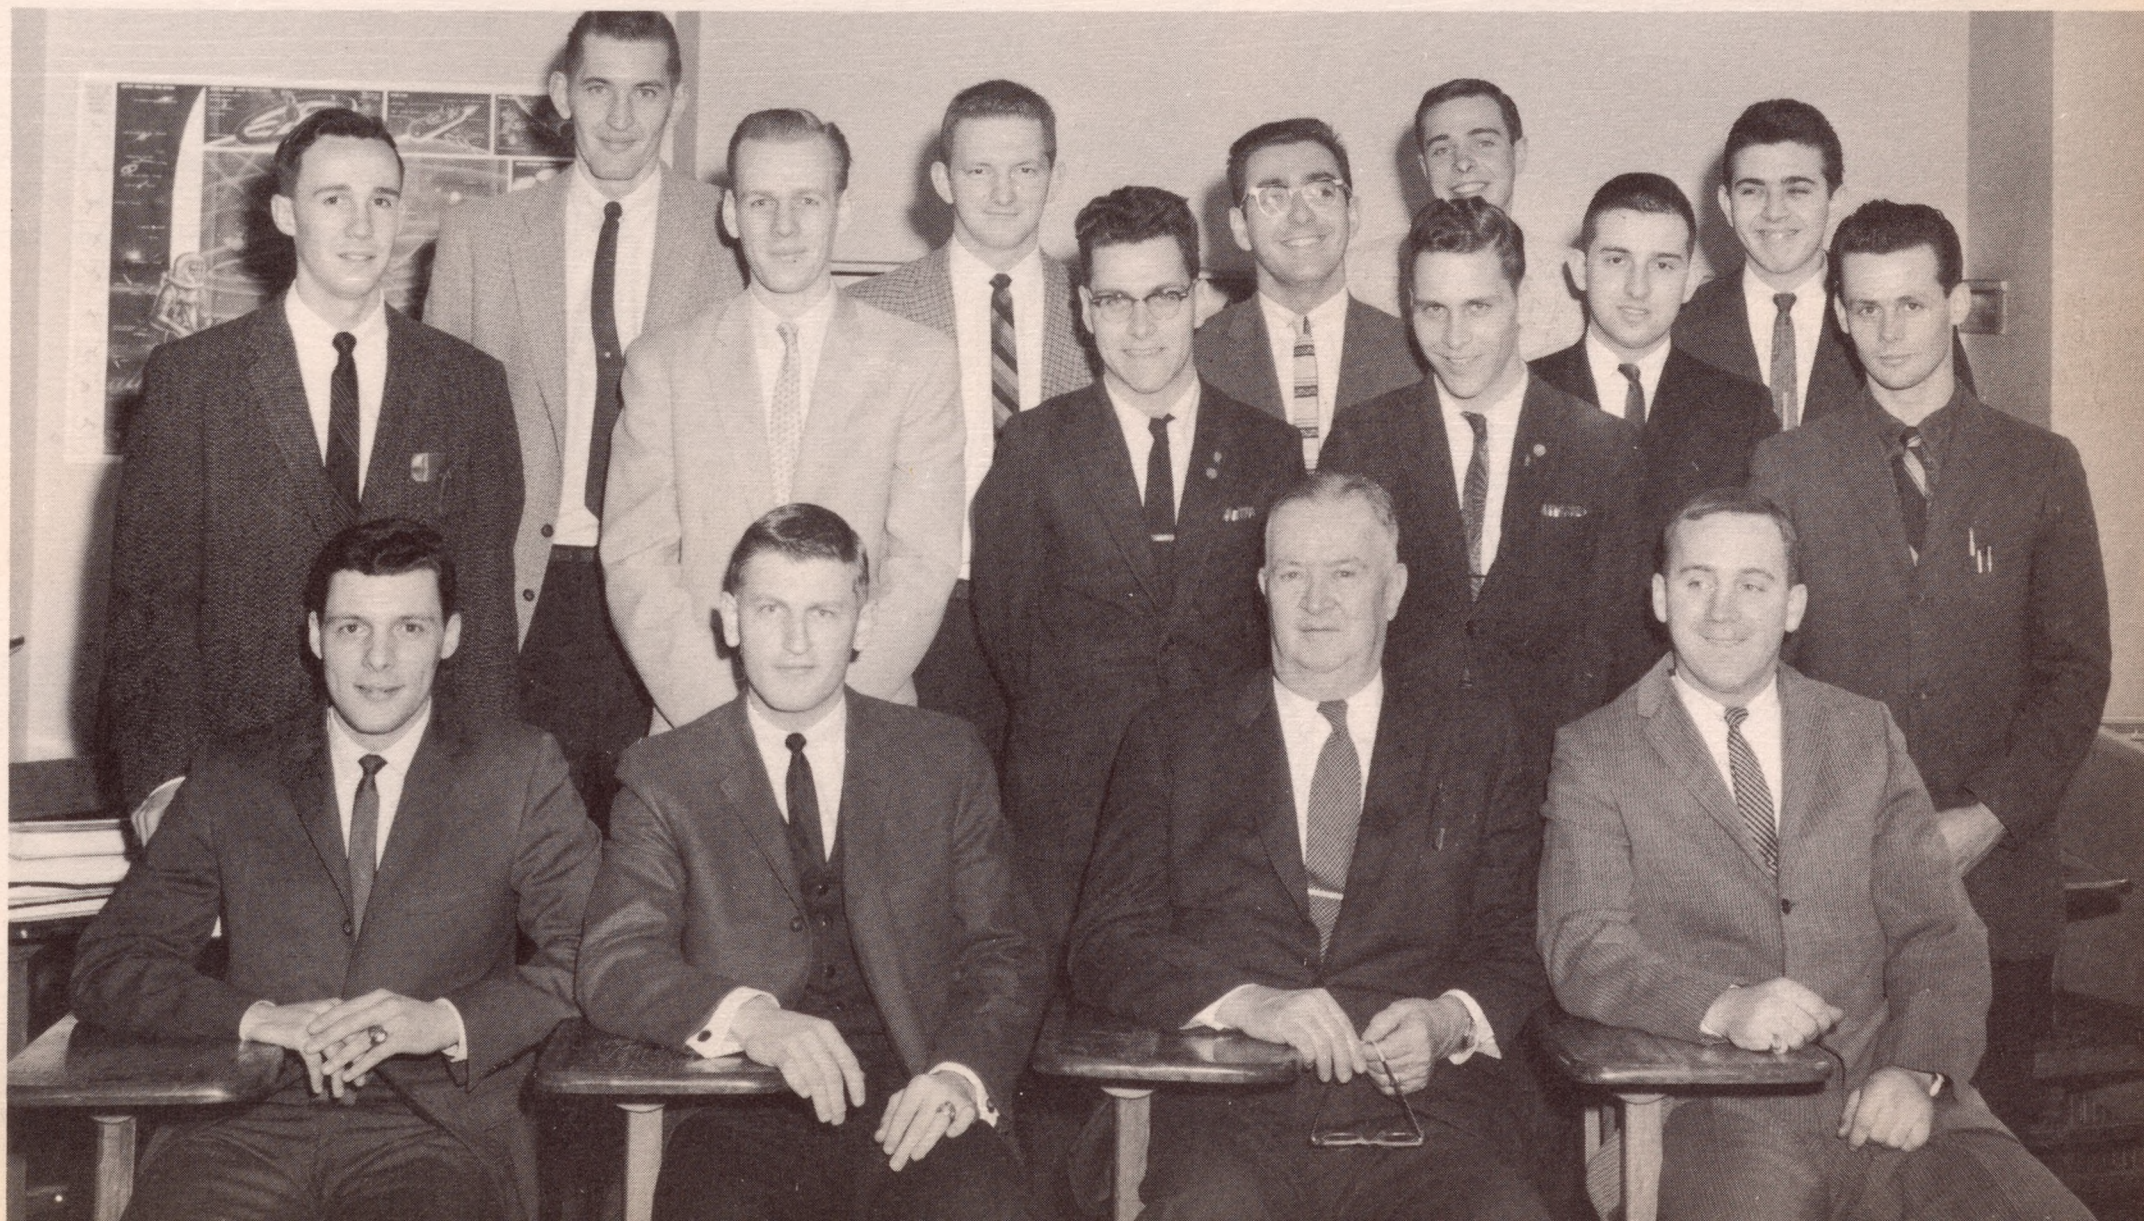

The student is always well informed and that which is worth its space in type need never be missed in the Echo. In order that the university student be always well informed the Paterson Division paper reports all the college's noteworthy events, as well as editorial comments.

MANAGEMENT CLUB, PATERSON

A young organization, formed in the Fall Semester of 1960, the Management Club is an extra-curricular extension of the University business department. It is the prime objective of this club to acquaint their neophyte businessmen with modern management procedures.

PROFESSIONAL NURSES' ASSOCIATION

Organized in 1958, The Professional Nurses' Association aims to promote the social and cultural growth of the individual, and acts as a liaison between the students and the faculty in creating a spirit of cooperation and good will, promoting activities, and stimulating interest in nursing and allied fields.

DRAMATIC WORKSHOP

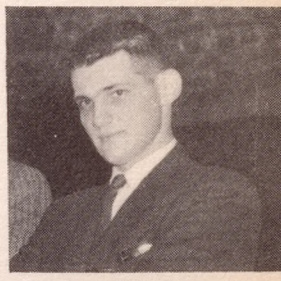

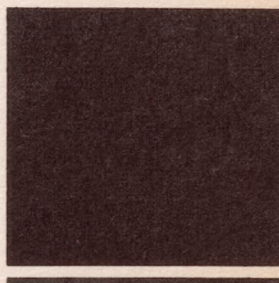

A stage . . . some lights . . . dramatis personae . . . lips, a smile . . . cheek, a tear . . . a lot more sweat than is on an opening night brow.

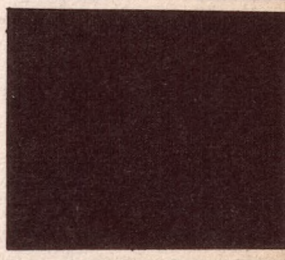

Founded by students in the Spring of 1959, The Dramatic Workshop has enrolled members from all the University campuses into a melting pot of everything from mascara to Arthur Miller.

ALPHA KAPPA PSI

The objectives of Alpha Kappa Psi are "to further the individual welfare of its members; to foster scientific research in the fields of commerce, accounts, and finance; to educate the public to appreciate and demand higher ideals therein; and to promote and advance in institutions of college rank, courses leading to degrees in business administration."

ALPHA EPSILON MU PROFESSIONAL BUSINESS FRATERNITY

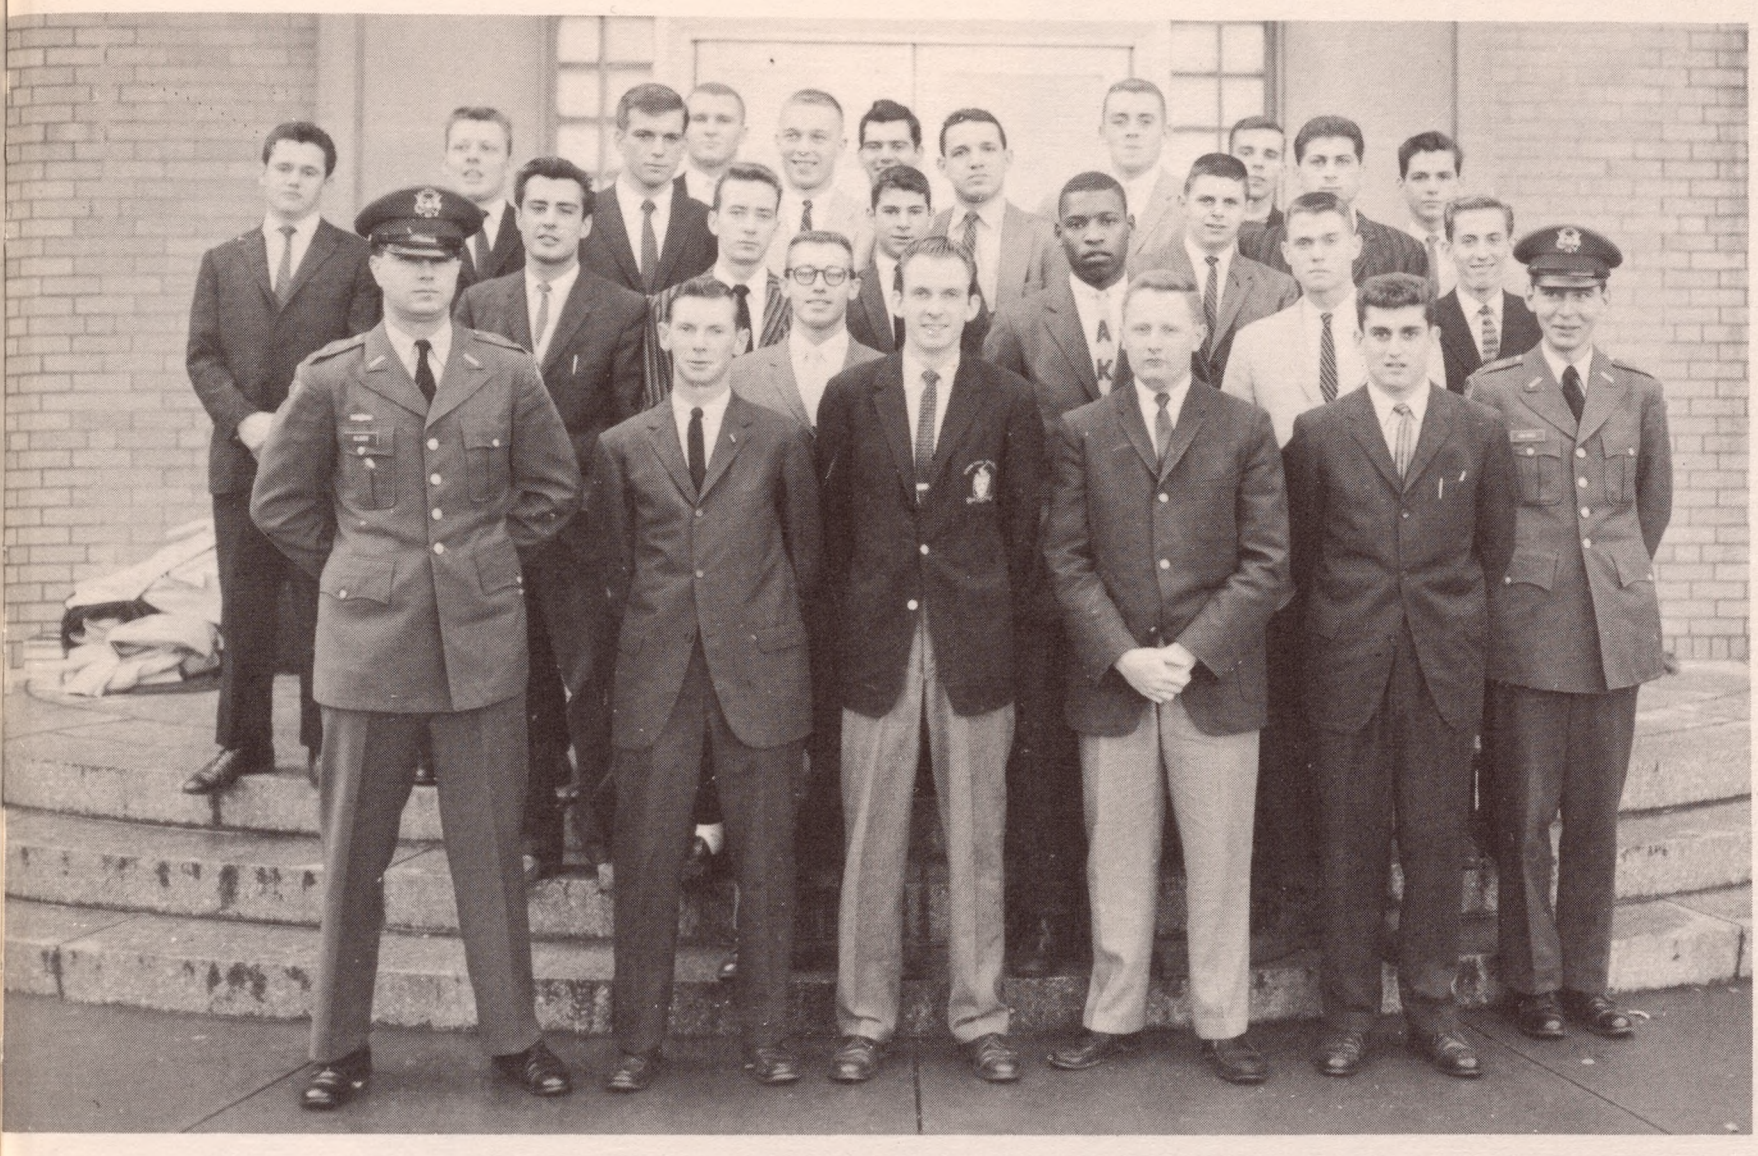

The Accounting Club, founded in 1954, and guided by the experience of the Accounting faculty and moderation of Mr. Charles Weiss, has grown so that it now ranks first in size among the business clubs on campus.

One of the primary aims of the club is the development of an understanding of accounting techniques and terminology among its members. This is accomplished through the films which are shown and the professional tours which are taken. The organization also invites notable men of the accounting profession to informally address its members.

ACCOUNTING CLUB

MARKETING CLUB

Exit: arguing, bargaining, conniving, and counter-tactics. The crowded marketplace of old, with its questionable "talk faster than thou" attitude has yielded to solid principles and sound methods. Enter: the modern, business — efficient procedures of marketing.

Since its founding in October of 1953, the Economics Club has concentrated on the various aspects of this vital field. The object of the club is to provide its members with an understanding of practical business world application of classroom theory.

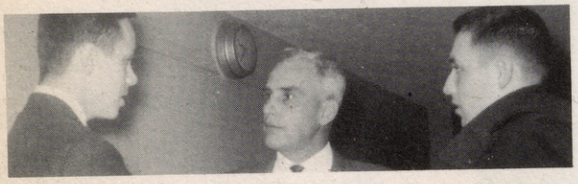

ECONOMICS CLUB

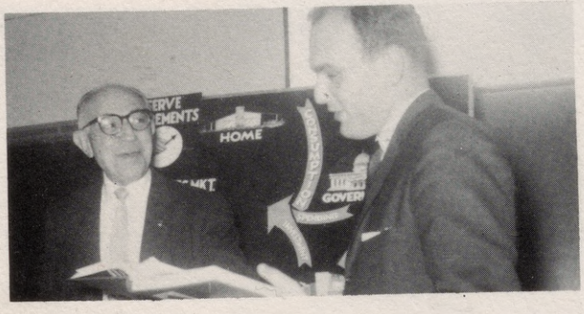

The United States system of Finance, the economic backbone of this country, is examined with exacting scrutiny under the lens of the Finance Club.

To fulfill its goal of fostering study and research in this field, the club invites guest lecturers who explain both the theoretical and practical aspects of finance.

OFFICERS CLUB

Camaraderie, "esprit de corps," patriotic comradeship. These terms are synonomous with the Officers' Club. The ROTC Cadet is more than just breathing militarism. He is orientated in an intensive program of technical and academic studies by the ROTC for his role as army officer. He is instilled with a spirit of comradeship by the Officers' Club for his role as social man.

PERSHING RIFLES

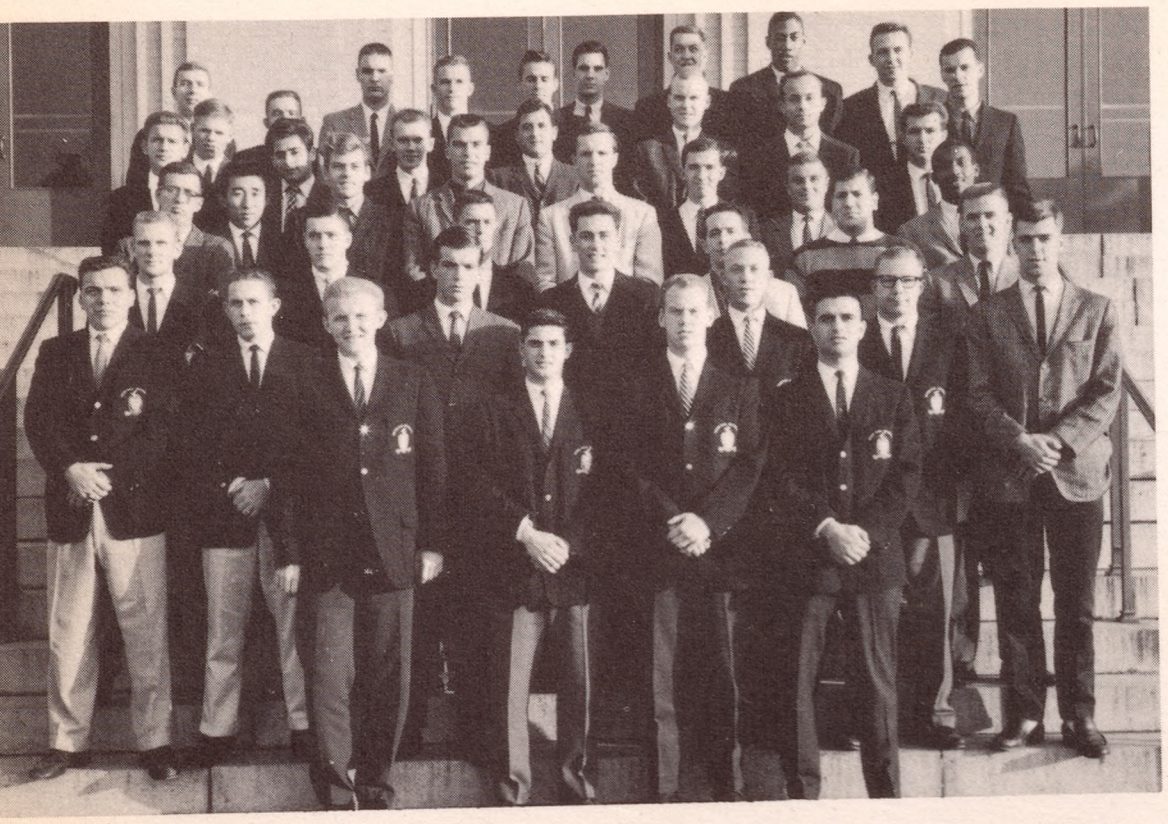

Strenuous training.
Close-order drill.
Guard details.
Early morning formations.

Such is the life of the ROTC Cadet who feels he is worthy of membership in the Pershing Rifles. Such is the honorary organization that stresses the importance of building responsibility in the college student who will be a future officer in the United States Army.

THE BOOSTER CLUB

The Booster Club, revised and revitalized, became one of the most active groups on campus this year. Supplying discount tickets to the students and organizing bus transportation to away games were consistent functions of the club.

It is often true that the success of the team depends on the support of the student body. The Booster Club guaranteed the support.

The skimmer-topped collegiates who lend their personal "Go Pirates" to the cheers at SHU's basketball games are the real "rah! rah!" spirit of the school.
